GLOBAL BLITZ WEEK

You are INVITED!

Join the Global Blitz Week Movement

Become a Global Blitz Week Collaborator!

We are inviting you to say YES to Global Blitz Week.

We believe the Gospel is for every person, every city, and every nation—and that every believer can play a crucial part in reaching someone with the love of Jesus.

Global Blitz Week is a global movement of believers, churches, ministries, movements and organisations coming together to share the Gospel simultaneously worldwide during Blitz Week.
Imagine it: nations and communities around the world being blitzed with the love of Christ—all at the same time.

Your YES to becoming a Global Blitz Collaborator means that you are willing to:

1. Share the Gospel during Global Blitz Week, together with thousands of others around the world, and/or
2. Pray for Global Blitz Week and the people being reached throughout the week.

You will be grafted into a global movement of evangelism—uniting the Body of Christ across nations, cultures, churches, and ministries around one simple mission: making Jesus known at the same time.

GLOBAL BLITZ WEEK

As a Global Blitz Week Collaborator, you will have the opportunity to join the growing movement through our WhatsApp community and three valuable Zoom calls throughout the year.
We will also provide the Global Blitz Week Toolkit, giving you practical resources and guidance to help you maximize your participation and mobilize others.

We welcome every expression in sharing the gospel that is unique to you.

Whether you are going alone, mobilizing a church of 20, or leading a network of thousands—your part matters.

GLOBAL BLITZ WEEK

Mission, Vision & Values

Every believer. Every expression — making Jesus known SIMULTANEOUSLY.

Our Mission is...

to activate and unite Christian believers, churches, organisations, movements and networks in every nation for a global movement that annually shares the gospel worldwide —simultaneously.

We envision nations and communities around the world being blitzed with the love of Christ—all at the same time.

Including

Global Blitz Week is not about a few ministries doing evangelism—it's about everyone having a place and everyone playing a part. From the largest church to the smallest local congregation, from global ministries to one believer reaching one person, every nation, every church, every network, every ministry and every believer can join. We don't wait for everyone to come to us—we empower people to participate wherever they are, united around one week, one mission, and one Gospel.

Unity

We facilitate relationships across churches, ministries, networks, and nations, united around the mission of reaching people with the Gospel.

Connecting

We work together, share resources, and combine our strengths so that we can reach further and accomplish more together.
